

Creating Corporate Value from the Environment

The Sanden Group has 53 business locations in 23 countries around the world and uses Sanden Total Quality Management (STQM) activities to realize outstanding product quality control management.

Based on our "global" and "quality", we are making the environment the domain of our business development activities.

We are aiming to be a global corporate group that earns strong trust and respect from a diverse range of stakeholders throughout the world.